We Proudly Dedicate
The 1986 Pillars
To
Dr. Carl Waldschmidt.

Dr. Carl L. Waldschmidt came to Concordia College in 1946 as an educator. He received his B. S. in education from here, and his masters in music from the University of Michigan. He acquired his doctorate at Northwestern University. This is Dr. Waldschmidt's 40th year at Concordia, but he says, "It doesn't seem like that long." When he came to Concordia he taught music classes, assisted with the band and coached the varsity baseball team. Two years later, he directed his first Festival Chorus Messiah. In 1955 he became chairman of the music department. From 1961 to 1974 he was Academic Dean, although he really likes both teaching and administrative work. After 13 years he returned to his first love-teaching, and directing on a full time basis.

When asked what he likes best about Concordia he replied, "I like the collegiality among the faculty and the rewarding type of highly motivated students who are talented as well as cooperative." These have all been part of the joys of conducting and teaching. Dr. Waldschmidt also believed that Concordia has a special function as a Christian College with a special orientation toward church work and the perpetuating of Christian living.

Dr. Waldschmidt will be on sabbatical next fall and winter, and although he has enjoyed directing Festival Chorus, he says, "I've been directing for a long time, it is someone else's turn now." In this way he will be able to devote all of his time to teaching. One of his great thrills was conducting the chorus at Orchestra Hall in a performance of Bach's St. Matthew's Passion with members of the Chicago Symphony. The concert was part of the college's centennial celebration.

Away from the classroom Dr. Waldschmidt is married with four children, two boys and two girls. They are all grown now and their homes spread from California to Michigan.

Friends Are Friends Forever

Homecoming 1985

Packing up the dreams of God planted
In the fertile soil of you Can't believe the hopes He's granted
Means a chapter in your life is through

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
Cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong

And friends are friends forever
 If the Lord's the Lord of them
 And a friend will not say "never"
 Cause the welcome will not end
 Though it's hard to let you go
 In the Father's hands we know that a lifetimes' not too long to live as friends

With the faith and love God's given Springing from the hope we know
We will pray the joy you'll live in
Is the strength that now you show

- Michael W. Smith

London '86

The 1985 London Interim trip was led by Professor Eunice Eifert. The class stayed in the greater metropolitan area of London, where they studied various plays, musicals, concerts and cathedral services. A student who was asked about her travels defined them as: London: a place where they supposedly speak the same language. The food can leave one wishing for real beef. Riding the tubes is the ultimate cultural experience. London, I've got to go back!

Those who participated in the trip were: Leslie Antal, Amy Dorn, Elizabeth Kopp, Claudia Schimek, Amy Shelling and Sandy Shepherd.

Germany '86

The 1985 Germany Interim trip was led by Professor William Ewald. The class was entitled: German Civilization and included a sampling of the culture and the customs of Germany. A participant had this to say about her trip:

The trip was one of the best experiences I've ever had! It lasted a little under three weeks. We spent a week in Bad Neuenahr where each of us stayed with a German family that taught us a lot. Other sites included; Cologne, Bonn, West Berlin, East Berlin and a small town called Murnau. One of my most favorite sites was Neuschwanstein Castle and the Alps.

One of our last stops was a walled town named Rothenberg. This town was what I had imagined Germany to be like. Touring the rest of Germany was very interesting and gave me a taste of what the rest of the world was like. The participants of this trip were: Lori Christiansen, Gwen Heinemann, Kim Hildebrand, Susan Lange, Cheryl Myer, Todd Petzoldt, Julia Powell.

Hawaii '86

The 1985 Hawaii Interim trip was led by Professor (Pila) William Hussong. The class was a geography course, covering various things such as: the beautiful vegetation, vulcanism, soil formation, wave formation and other characteristics that make the Hawaiian Islands unique. The class visited the isles of: Kauai, Oahu, Maui and the big island of Hawaii. One of the students' remarked, "What a place! It's a place of sun, sand and good people."

As we waited for a volcano to erupt, there were warnings from the natives about the Hawaiian fire goddess, Pele, but we weren't worried. The volcano never erupted, but that's ok, maybe Concordia's next group will see it.

The students of this trip were: Mike Broll, Steve Beckman, Pat Fisher, Gail Graham, Phil Schluckebier, Kristin Weber, and Ray and Jane Wilk.

ORGANIZATIONS

Staffs

To make coming to school in the fall a little easier for freshmen and transfers there are three groups of students that try to pave the way.

The transfer staff, Freshman Orientation Staff, and Camp Staff all try to make the transition a little easier by planning various activities. Some of these activities included midnight madness, ice cream social, baseball game, and many other fun, social events. As these new students come to Concordia these staffs try to make them feel welcomed into our family of God.

Memories

To keep our memories of Concordia alive, we have two publications: Pillars and Spectator. The Spectator is a bi-weekly paper that keeps the students up to date on campus and outside world activities and events. The editors of the Spectator are Cindy Nerge and Tim Schumacher, and their staff work very hard to keep the students informed. The Pillars, edited by Gail Graham and Kathy Meyer, is the school yearbook. This book keeps the happenings of the school year together and lets them remain in our memories forever. Another aspect of Concordia that helps keep our memories alive, is the Photography Laboratory. This group of students, is responsible for taking the pictures that are to be used by the Pillars and Spectator staffs. Photo lab is not only responsible for getting the pictures taken but also process the negatives that are to be used. The Photo-Lab coordinator is Phil Schluckebier.

Executive Committee

This group is made up of nine students who work together, with the administration, and with other students to benefit the entire Concordia community. Spiritual Life Retreats, Babyholding, PACE, Homecoming, Starlight Showcase, Academic Forums, Pillars, Spectator and many other activities find their roots in the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee works hard all year long and many things are accomplished. The nine members who make up the Executive Committee, however, are only the leaders. To be effective, the committee requires the time and the effort of many other students, whether they be Senators, Council members or those involved in activities sponsored by the Executive Committee.

Councils

The Student Activities Committee (SAC) is primarily made up of eight people although, membership fluctuates throughout the year. SAC is responsible for all the movies, the dances, and the Starlight Showcase. The biggest movie hit was the Star Wars weekend and the largest showcase was with Paul Hill, a famous musician/singer-songwriter. SAC also sponsored a bus to go to C. I. T. in St. Paul, Minnesota. SAC's goal for the year was to generate more student participation. In some activities they fulfilled their goal while still others, participation was average.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES COUNCIL: (Front Row) A. Muraski, J. Burton, S. Haake, J. Henderson, B. Neubauer, D. Rudick. (Back Row) J. Blank, C. Sandine, T. Gehrke, P. Wordell, S. Otto, R. Dixie.

The Special Events Committee is headed by Ra Dixie. The Committee is made up of Students who facilitate excitement and involvement in student activities. The goals for the year were to come up with new ideas and concepts while doing some of the traditional special events on campus such as: Dances, Campus Awareness Day, Parents Weekend and a Sibling Weekend. The group has met with much success throughout the year.

SPECIAL EVENTS COUNCIL: S. Gehrs, C. Allen, A. Kottlowski, R. Dixie, K. McCormack, M. Cocanig, J. Price.

The Homecoming Committee has a lot of work to do, especially at the beginning of the year, to prepare for the week of homecoming. Many special events are planned for the week and it is this group that makes it all possible. Such activities as the dance and the banquet are highlighted to make this a fun filled week for all.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE: (Front Row) C. Allen, S. Redenz, L. Mears, D. Dinagraudo, C. Laesch, J. Plautz. (Second Row) A. Kottowski, S. Meyers, J. Peters, K. Schmidt, D. Dufelmeier, J. Hatland, M. Senate

The Student Association Senate is a group of select students who are elected by others on their floor to represent the student body. These students, including representatives from the commuting students and nursing students, meet two times a month with the Executive Committee to discuss issues that pertain to the functioning of Concordia. Many of these students are also on Councils which look further into issues and bring their results back to Senate meetings for discussion. The Senate is a very important part of Concordia in that it allows the views and the desires of the student body to be made known.

SENATORS: (Front Row) D. LaCroix, S. Schmidt, C. Gnewuch, M. Patton, D. Bahr, L. Kendall (Second Row) D. Grimm, I. Nativadada, C. Lavenau, L. Ramsey, S. Marcis, D. Sadilek, M. Dulmes, D. SLR

Spiritual Life Representatives (SLR) are an important aspect to the Spiritual life at Concordia. The students who make up this group are elected by each floor and go to meetings on Sunday nights. These meetings are for the SLR's to share their experiences and to learn new ideas from each other and from guest speakers that are present.

SPIRITUAL LIFE REPRESENTATIVES: B. Marlatt, B. Rakow, S. Muenchow, Dr. Maier, S. Frenzel, S. Vogel, M. Perce, S. Hasselbring.

International Friends

International Friends is a campus organization dedicated to carrying out the Great Commission here on campus. Not all of us are called to go out into the world to preach the Gospel so God brought all nations to us through the English Language Service school. Healthy relationships between Concordia students and E.L.S. students is strived for in hopes that all would see that we are all equal in God's eyes. Through these friendships across cultures, students can learn, and the world God made for us can become a more inviting and friendly place to live.

I. F. (International Friends)

If I help a stranger in my land and make him feel welcome,
If I lend a caring hand
I'll make him feel at home.

If I take the time to give
I would give much more than time.
If I could open my arms
I would be laying down my arms.

If is such a tiny word that can make such a difference
If we share the word
It can make such a difference.

I. F. is International Friends and you can make the difference
If you will open doors
Instead of building fences.

German Club

The German Club is a group of German Speaking students who get together when there are special German activities taking place. This year the group has gotten together to take in a German film, play, and worship service. They have also gone down to German Town in downtown Chicago to see the culture and heritage of the German people.

GERMAN CLUB: D. Ramsey, K. Massie, J. Dreyer.

Drama

Throughout the year the drama department does many things to keep active. The group of students who put on plays throughout the year is the Artists Of Concordia Theatre. These students have put in a tremendous amount of work on stage and off, putting on such shows as Confusions, Androcles and the Lion, and Skin of Our Teeth. Another group of students who participate in drama is Players Inc. The group performs occassionally in chapel to enhance our service in a different way, doing it all in the name of Christ. The Forensics team is another form of drama that we have here at Concordia. This group of students practice a variety of things such as prose, poetry, and interpretive readings to compete with in tournaments. This year they were only able to go to one tournament in which they all did very well especially Diana Harroun who placed sixth.

Nurses

The Nursing Program is a fairly new program here at Concordia.

Many of the students involved spend a lot of time here at Concordia as well as at West Suburban Hospital. These students can be involved in activities at both places, however, there are special groups that only the nursing students can be involved in: the Nursing Student Organization (NSO) is one of these groups. The function of this organization is to provide a channel of communication between the College of Nursing Faculty and the students, and to help develop professional growth as well as broaden interest in many areas. The Nursing Choir, directed by Sandy Rios, is another group in which the nursing students can be involved. The choir, a very unique and special group, toured this year in Florida spreading the Word by using their voices. Another group for the nursing students is the Student Missionary Project (SMP). This is a self-supporting outreach program which encourages interest in cross-cultural missions work.

Foresters

The Foresters is a college sponsored group of eight talented students. These students put in a lot of work beginning in June of the year and going through the following May. Practices were heavy and often but their hard work paid off and they were able to sing the Lord's praises throughout the area and in New Orleans while on tour.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir is made up of a group of students whose main function is to use their voices to add to our worship services on Wednesdays and Fridays. Besides singing in Chapel the Choir has also ventured off campus to sing once a quarter.

Professor Wente is the director of Chapel Choir and he enjoys it very much. Membership in the choir fluctuates from quarter to quarter allowing for a variety of students who do not have time for a tour the opportunity to use their voices.

Chamber Singers

The Chamber Singers, Directed by Professor Schleff, had two concerts this year and was the main event in the Madrigal dinner. This dinner was a great success as we saw the singers dressed as Lords and Ladies of the Renaissance period. The music, also of that period, was presented by the singers, the recorder ensemble, and a brass quartet. This group of talented people had great fun in participating and were able to use their God given talents to the best of their abilities.

Wind Symphony

The Wind Symphony is a group of students who use their talents in playing instruments to praise the Lord. The group is directed by Richard Fischer; they practice several times a week and they perform in Chapel, in Concerts and on tour. This year the Wind Symphony toured in Florida. This tour provided an opportunity for the band to play and for the students to become good friends with each other. Another experience the band had this year was in commissioning a piece of music with the Campbell University Wind Ensemble, a piece composed by Mark Elling Benson a Current Ph.D. Candidate at the University of Michigan. The Piece, "Chants and Meditations" was performed for the first time by these symphonies.

Hoffschneider, C. Snyder, J. Wellborn, S. Shepherd.

Kapelle

The Kapelle directed by Dr. Gieschen, has done a great amount of singing on our campus as well as off campus. This year instead of going on a long tour over Spring break, they went on little tours for three or four days over weekends. The group has had a lot of fun in such states as Iowa, Indiana, Missouri and Illinois. Through the tours the students have grown close as a group. They feel they are not only evangelizing, but also they are praising the Lord. It has been an encouraging experience for people to come and listen to God's Word in music.

KAPELLE: (Front Row) M. Karolus, E. Wright, J. Murphy, S. Schmidt, Dr. Gieschen, C. Strasser, S. Otto, S. Geisler, K. Weissberg (Second Row) T. Sidwell, C. King, D. Henricksen, G. Walther, D. The Handbell Choir meets once each week and they play at a variety of occasions. Over Christmas they played in the Oak Park Mall and they performed in Chapel several times. The group also went on tour the first weekend in May to Wisconsin which was a great success. They are directed by Professor Schleff as well as two student directors.

Flute Ensemble

The Flute Ensemble, Directed by Ellen Hollemann, meets once a week. They play in chapel and have one recital a year in McCormick Recital Hall. They play as a group and they divide up and play in smaller groups when they are needed to enhance a variety of occasions.

Dear Mom and Dad,

Well I guess I've survived my first week at college. I even managed to pass the swimming test without drowning. Orientation week was pretty fun, I met a lot of new people. I kind of know my way around campus, but I still haven't the slightest idea of how to find my classes.

Speaking of classes, they start tomorrow. I don't know about some of these classes??? The books are huge- are we really supposed to finish reading them by Thanksgiving? By the way, those books were kind of expensive, and I only have $4.36 left so . . . do you think you could send some money?

I finally got everything unpacked. Are you sure I'm going to need that dictionary, the drying rack, and all those batteries? I think I should have brought stuff to eat because the food here isn't as good as yours. My roommate brought a refrigerator, a hot pot, a popcorn popper, and six bags of groceries.

We're getting along pretty good. We both like to sleep late. I was looking through some of the music my roommate brought. It's a good thing my stereo has headphones.

Well, don't miss me too much. Ha Ha!

Love,

Your Freshman

Homecoming '85

"Friends Are Friends Forever"

"And friends are friends forever, if the Lord's the Lord of them . . ."

"Friends, are Friends Forever" was what Homecoming 1985 was all about; from the freshmen who were just beginning to realize how special their new friends were, to the alumni returning to see their old friends.

Under the direction of Monique Cocanig and Sharon Myles, a large committee was organized to run the week's festivities. Highlights of the week included a Psych Dance, Powderpuff football, a Candlelight Dinner, Slave Auction, & Pep Rally. Students showed spirit by participating in Tropical Dress-Up Day, Most Outrageous Outfit, Maroon & Gold, Class Colors, and Hat and Button Day. The weekend began with the President's reception, Banquet with entertainer Ed Fiala, and the coronation of queen Sandy Liebmann and her court.

Saturday included the Alumni Brunch and Reception and of course the Football Game against Eureka. Entertainment was provided by the Pep Band, Cheerleaders, Pom-Pons, Seniors Guys Cheerleaders, and the Float Competition. The evening was complete with the Homecoming Dance.

Sunday rounded up the week with a Communion Worship Service and the championship Powder Puff Game.

Music

The music program at Concordia is quite extensive. It includes such groups as the Wind Symphony, Chamber Winds, Jazz Band, Kapelle, Chamber Singers, and many others. The students put many hours of hard work into these groups, and the concerts produced by these students reflect their effort and dedication.

The trio of Dave Schmidt, Nick Malleos, and Jeff Smith tour as Salvation.

Tiny Tim's Christmas Dream

The charming story of "Tiny Tim" was presented during interim. This production was directed by Jay Sierszyn in Little theatre by the Children's theatre group.

Tiny Tim is about a boy who does not have enough self-confidence to exercise his disabled legs, so he can walk again. An elf named Peege comes to him one night and leads him through three fairy tale adventures in which Tiny Tim is called upon to rescue people from terrible fates. In doing so, with the encouragement of Peege, he gains confidence in himself. The three tales are Hansel and Gretel, Little Red Riding Hood and Jack and the Beanstalk. In the end, Tiny Tim learns to have enough courage to use his own legs and self-confidence to trust that he will get well.

Androcles And The Lion

Androcles and the Lion (adapted by Aurand Harris) was presented in Winter quarter and was directed by Dr. Eunice Eifert.

It is the story of Androcles, a slave who was bound to the old miser, Pantalone. He assists the lovely Isabella to run away from Pantalone's strict household with her sweetheart Lelio. Finding that she had left her dowry behind, he goes to take it to her, but Pantalone engages the flamboyant, bragging Captain to pursue them, and bring back his runaway slave as well as the dowry. All are stopped in their tracks by a fierce Lion, who intimidates them all into hiding from each other. Finally cornered, Androcles is obliged, for his own safety, to befriend the Lion, and when both are captured and led into the arena to fight one another, they can only embrace to Pantalone's consternation.

Confusions

Confusions, a delightful set of four one-act plays by Alan Ayckbourn. This production was directed by Dr. Eunice Eifert and presented on November 1,2,8,9 of 1985. The four one-acts are interlinked with a common theme. Each play deals riotously, but with sharply pointed undertones, with human eccentricities and the human dilemmas. Of loneliness; a mother unable to escape from baby-talk in MOTHER FIGURE, a disastrous fete in GOSFORTH'S FETE, a fate fraught dinner encounter in BETWEEN MOUTHFULS and the final play sums up with five self-immolated characters on park benches, in A TALK IN THE PARK.

So, what is this show all about? It's about the human race and survival (something it has always managed to do), and learning from past mistakes (something it is not so good at). Wilder wrote this play in 1942, and his optimistic message of mankind's ability to survive had great appeal to those living in the turmoil of World War II. This message is still relevant in the 1980's when talk of global destruction and nuclear holocaust are so prevalent. Despite mankind's sinfulness and forgetfulness, it has been given the potential to overcome life's calamities and survive ... by the skin of its teeth.

Will the Antrobus family survive the ice age?

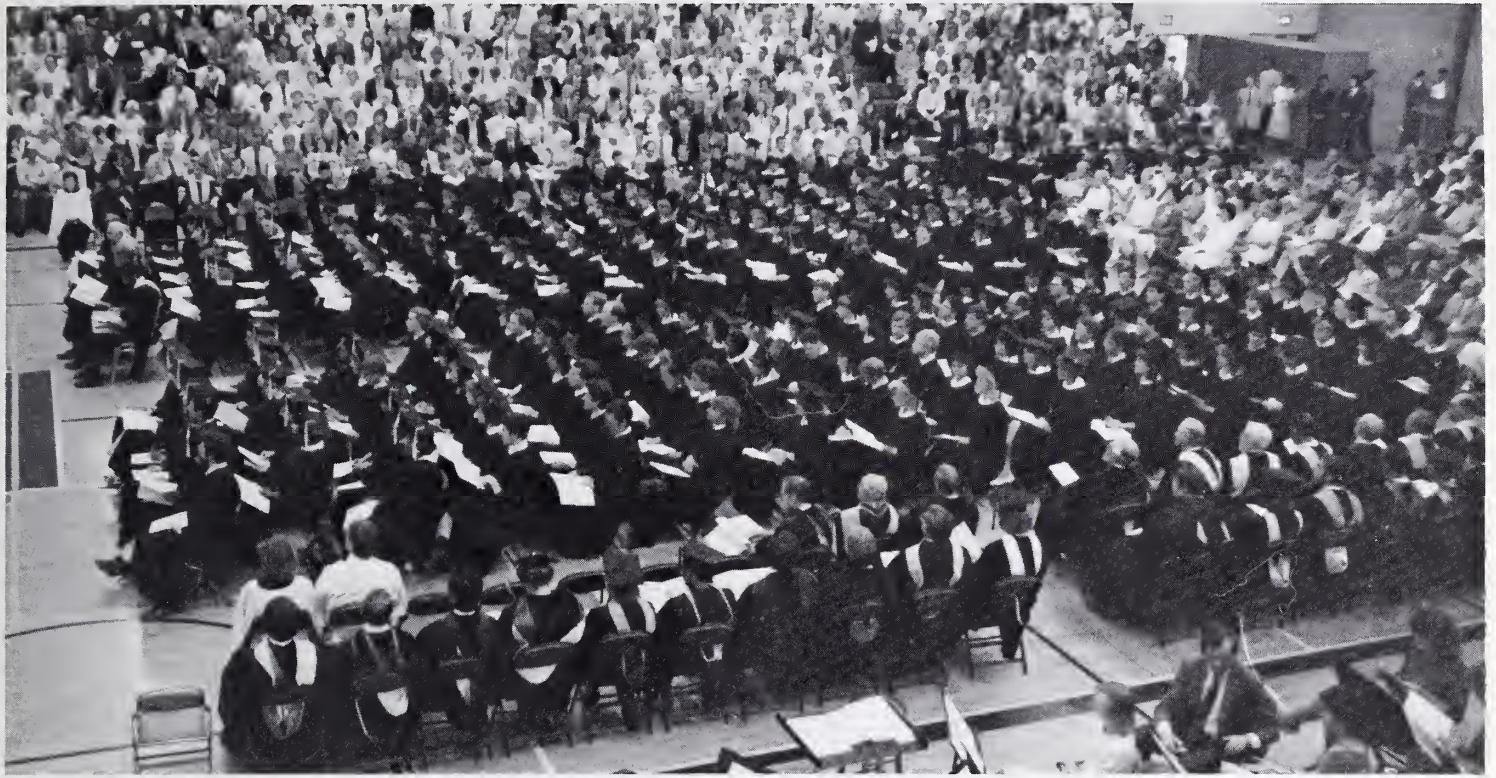

Living In The Light

"Living in the Light was the theme of the 1985-86 school year. This was the message spread throughout the campus and the country by the chapel services, C.Y.M. teams, music groups, floor and dorm devotions, and other spiritual activities. The spiritual life at Concordia is very important, and with the help of these many programs we have grown in Christ and are "Living in the Light".

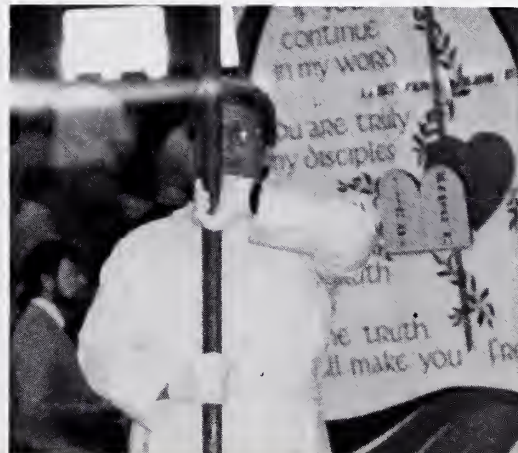

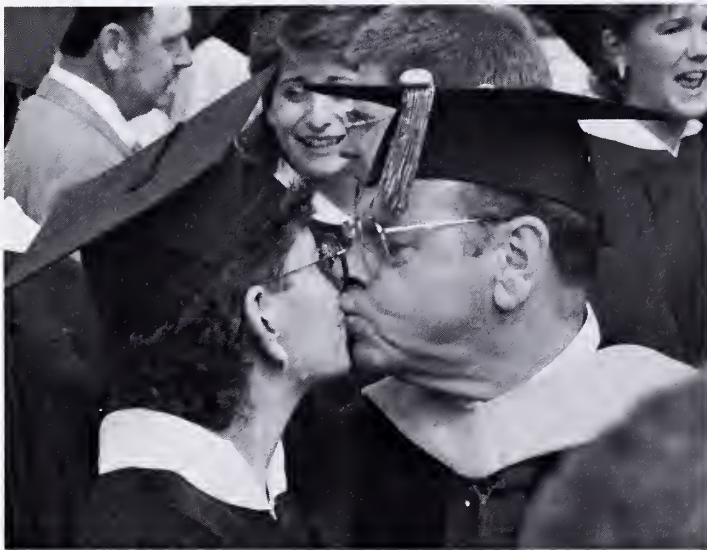

Above Jonathon Kohrs practices the organ, he has served Concordia through helping to plan chapel worship services.

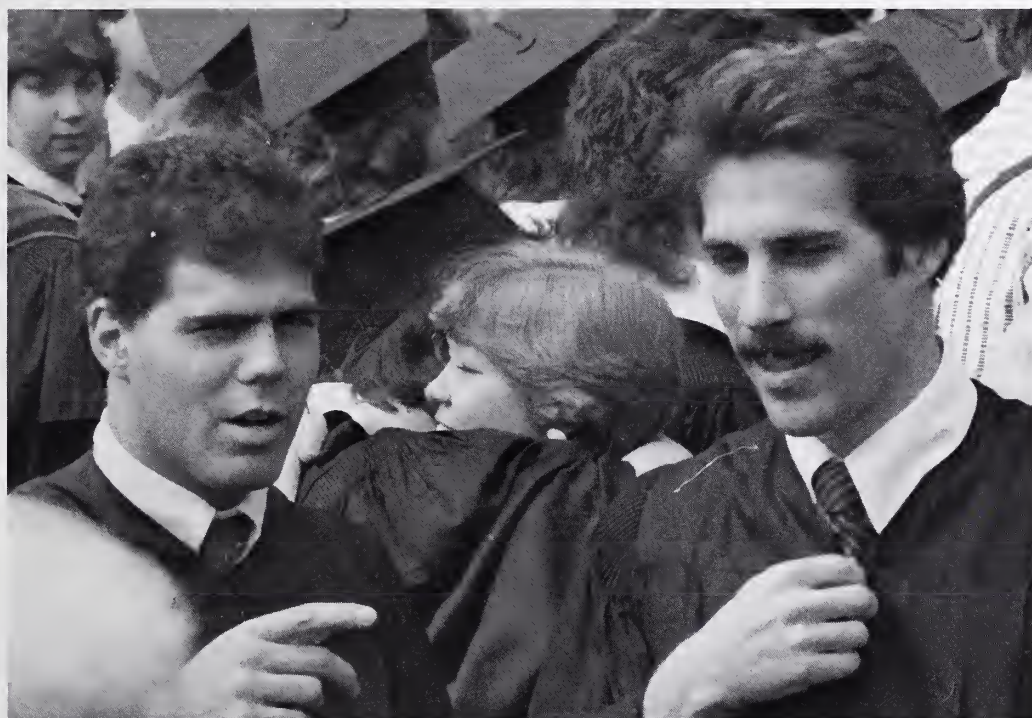

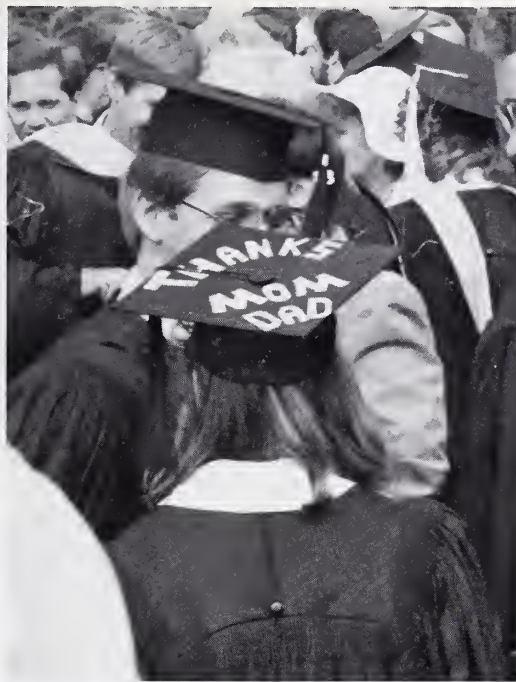

"Go ye therefore . . ." (Matt. 28:19)

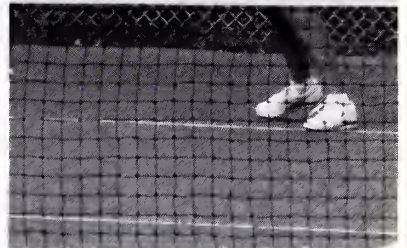

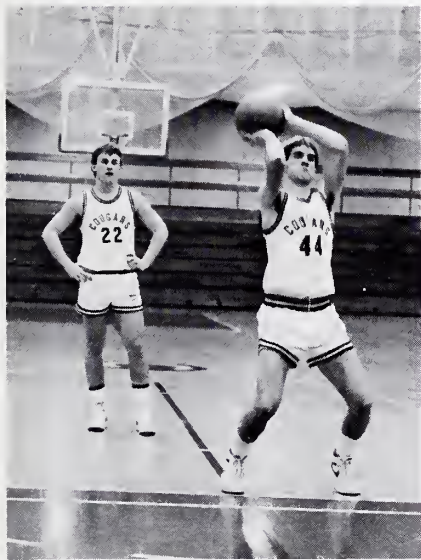

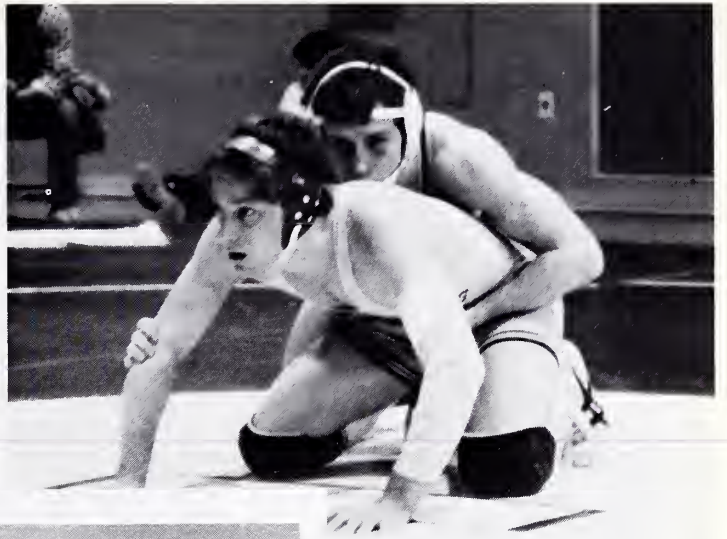

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, Maroon and Gold!
Here we stand, thy sons and daughters,
Thinking back to days of old.

Days of joy and happy meetings,
Days of friendship and of love.
As we stand before thy pillars,
Hail! CONCORDIA, Hail!

The 1985 Cougar football team enjoyed several weeks in the National spotlight during their season. After a slow start against Lake Forest, and a last minute loss to Bluffton College, the Cougars got on track and posted four consecutive wins. During this time, some impressive statistics were compiled which placed our college in the NCAA Div. III top ten rankings in several categories. However, in game seven the impressive aerial attack came to an end and the Cougars dropped two close games which denied aspirations to a conference championship. In the end, the Cougars ended with a 4-5 record over all while finishing 2-2 in conference play. Quarterback, Rob Shippy, and receiver, Todd Black, were All Conference players with Black also honored as an All American.

The Volleyball team's greatest asset this year was our ability to play together, which brought us closer together as a group and success on the court. The Cougars finished 2nd place in the NIIC with a 14-14 record. Our performance in the Chicago Metro Conference Tournament was the high point of the season. We went into the tournament 7th out of eight teams and with spectacular play captured third place. With only three seniors graduating, we are expecting bigger things next year.

The 1985-86 season was a building year for the Cougars. The team consisted of one senior, three juniors, two sophomores, and six freshmen. A very tough early schedule left the team at 1-7. The new year brought new hope. During the remainder of the season there were many frustrating near misses, such as a one-point loss to Concordia, Ann Arbor, and later that week another one point loss to Trinity College in overtime. Both games had a final score of 72-73. After finishing in third place at CIT, the team came back in early February for another very close game with Aurora University (co-conference champions). This was Coach Platt's first season, and it has formed a solid base to build on.

Womens Basketball

With all members except for one returning, the 1985-1986 Concordia Women's Basketball team had high hopes. Using the talents and abilities which God has blessed each of us with has allowed us to excel to edify through basketball. High points in the season were the C.I.T. championship, victories over Rockford, Aurora, and I.B.C., and the conference title. Our Cougars final record was 17-7, which tied the all time win record for the school. Our team's extensive training and strong N.I.I.C.

competition gave our athletes the opportunity to improve themselves by building up their bodies and minds to God. Our athletes worked closely with each other, helping and encouraging teammates to make the best use of their talents. Through cooperation, skill, and prayer, our team has always performed respectably and whether we came out on top or were defeated, all glory was given to God, who gave each of us the ability to excel to edify.

The past year has been one of many new experiences for the squad. We had the chance to go to a summer camp where we learned a lot of new cheers and stunts. We really had fun doing the cheers even though some were different than what we were used to. Through camp we were brought closer together than is normal for a squad and this really helped us to be more than just six girls supporting our Cougars, but we grew into more of a family.

We had fun putting together our routine for C.I.T. and just prayed that we could pull it off! There were a few injuries this year, unfortunately; but even through those we did our best to be cheerful! All in all, our squad of thirteen was one that strutted their stuff for the Lord, knowing He gave us the talents we had. I am very proud of "my" squad- I couldn't have asked for any better people to work with! They made the memories worth remembering!

The 1985-1986 year was surely an awesome year for us! We were very busy performing at four home football games and thirteen home basketball games. We had a great time preparing our routines for C.I.T. The first ever grade school clinic was held and was a huge success. God truly blessed our squad with wonderful, talented girls and our sponsor, Heidi, who we would have been lost without. I am very honored to have been apart of this wonderful squad!

Coach Connie Aumann is hopeful about next year and the future as the team returns a strong nucleus. He faces the difficult task of replacing Beth Schumacher.

Once again, it is that time of the year, when we say goodbye to our many graduating friends, and proudly announce the completion of the 1986 edition of the Pillars. Throughout the year our staff has been challenged by many things (mostly deadlines), but has managed to survive to complete the yearbook. We are thankful to have had such a hardworking, dedicated staff. We'd especially like to thank our advisor, Rich Richter and Photo-Lab for their helpful participation. We'd also like to thank the people of Concordia who helped us when we needed it and were patient with us. And last, but certainly not least, we thank the Lord for these blessings He has given us and pray for continued blessings on future editions.
